Streamline your drying process, improve efficiency, and save space by neatly organizing your drying cannabis on our Cannabis Drying Rack. The high-quality, durable powder coated finish protects against abrasion, corrosion, and wear. Removable base and optional collection shelves allow for easy cleaning. The rack's convenient wheels provide for flexible storage and transport. Although shown below in large and small sizes, A-ROO Company racks are 100% customizable. Arrange the shelves and easily adjusting drying arms into numerous potential combinations for your specific drying needs. Choose from three different shelving options to collect dried product: polycarbonate, PVC, or wire mesh. Simply and easily link racks with the addition of a hitch and pin.

These optional A-ROO Company Cannabis Drying Rack Shelves have been designed to collect loose dried product and to provide the option of separating varieties of drying cannabis on the same Drying Rack without fear of mixing of varieties. Each A-ROO Company Cannabis Drying Rack Shelf has unique features as described below and like the Drying Rack Arms - each Drying Rack Shelf is easily height adjustable.

POLYCARBONATE DRYING SHELF : (Left) Lightweight, rigid, grooved surface and clear - allows easy collection and cleaning.

PVC DRYING SHELF : (Middle) Durable, economical - allows for easy collection and cleaning.

WIRE MESH DRYING SHELF : (Right) The ultimate in drying, allowing maximum airflow - yet still allowing for collec-

A-ROO COMPANY CANNABIS CLIPS are the perfect companion to the Cannabis Drying Rack. Simple and easy to use, they are the finishing touch to ensure secure holding and ideal drying. Help prevent mold and mildew by hanging cannabis from these
